

Anti-Money Laundering Policy

Anti-Money Laundering Policy

The Anti-Money Laundering (“AML”) Policy applies to all users of our services, including our workforce, who are entailed to comply with the relevant jurisdiction’s applicable regulations. In compliance with the prevention of money laundering, you acknowledge and accept the terms outlined in our Know-Your-Customer (“KYC”) Policy.

The Company strictly complies with the appropriate regulatory measures to prevent all parties involved in committing unlawful acts such as, but not limited to, money laundering, security frauds, terrorist financing, tax evasion, and other financial crimes considered unlawful in the relevant country or jurisdiction.

You affirm that the money you use and invest in the Company is legally obtained and is not involved or acquired in any way from drug trafficking, abduction, terrorist activity, financial fraud, laundering, embezzlement, or any other unlawful criminal activity or to what is considered unlawful by any relevant authority. You acknowledge that legal consequences may be implemented if you are suspected or proven to be using funds from any illegal activity. We reserve the right to suspend or terminate your account upon suspected or proven illegal origination of funds without prior notice.

We may obtain and keep records of your conducted financial transactions through our website and our respective bank affiliates and payment service providers (“PSPs”). You acknowledge that we may use these records as admissible evidence in any court, regulatory government, and authorities for any suspected or proven money laundering-related activities. We reserve the right to disclose such financial records to authorized third parties for lawful reasons and if deemed obligatory. All records within our workforce shall be considered confidential, and we are not obligated to provide you or any third party with such records or information.

In compliance with the regulations and conditions of our affiliated banks and PSPs, we strictly comply with their imposed transaction limits and funding restrictions. You are solely responsible for observing your transactions to avoid suspicious financial activities.

If a third party should perform a financial transaction on your behalf, you must provide a Power of Attorney (“POA”) with such transaction request subject to our approval. We reserve the right to decline or cancel any transaction without prior notice if it is deemed necessary. If any third-party transaction was not approved, such transaction can be considered invalid.

Risk Disclosure: Engaging in the trading of leveraged products carries substantial risk and may not be suitable for all individuals. The leverage offered in trading can amplify both potential gains and losses, and there is a substantial risk of losing more than your initial investment. Market conditions can change rapidly, and unexpected geopolitical events or economic data releases may cause volatile price movements, leading to unpredictable changes. Traders should carefully consider their risk tolerance, financial situation, and investment objectives before trading. Seek professional advice if necessary to ensure informed decision-making in the complex and dynamic financial environment.

BankeFeX
Endless Possibilities.